Charlesbridge. 1 Paperback(s), 2013. soft. Book Condition: New. (A Junior Library Guild Selection) In this follow-up to Pinch and Dash Make Soup, Pinch's Aunt Hasty is staying true to her name. She has sold her house before finding a new home, and lucky Pinch is now the recipient of a surplus red couchone that is too long for his living room, with cushions that are too soft, and which clashes with his blue curtains. Dash visits his friend and tries to find a place for the terrible couch, which he thinks is actually rather nice. After a lot of moving and shoving, Dash falls asleep on the couch, and Pinch realizes just where it ought to go. Looking rather like woodchucks in Thomas Yezerski's ink and watercolor cartoons, neighbors and friends Pinch and Dash live in a cozy town of homes and shops and have hilarious domestic adventures together in this early chapter book for readers 5 to 7. 48.
