Kathy tells of the valiant and unapologetic struggle of a mother trying to find a semblance of her son as they are both wrapped in the turmoil of bipolar disorder. Exuding the most resilient love for her son and family, her narrative shows how it feels to be in the circle of those intimately affected by mental illness and in a world beset by institutional failure. Max depicts reality through the lens of the artist he is yet to become. With a callous, ruthless self-scrutiny, he retells both his manic and depressive episodes. At times unnerving, the fierce honesty of his prose is ameliorated by humor and a highly visual writing style. Max conveys a playful and unsettling beauty that he scratches off the seemingly dim surface of day-to-day life. It's the whiz kid and his vexed mother. His emotional unrest and her unhindered kindness. Mother and son weave their narratives into a single powerful story about living with bipolar disorder. EDITORIAL REVIEWS Walks on the Margins, told with brutal honesty, great skill and sweeping passages of lyric beauty, is nothing short of a landmark in the literature of mental illness. - Kathryn Eastburn, KRCC Public Radio Novelist Kathy Brandt and her son, Max, take readers on a terrifying journey through our nation's broken, overwhelmed, underfunded, and frustrating mental health care system. Walks On The Margins will make you...
