Not illustrated. 1893 Excerpt: .and it came fully to pass, because the Jewish nation failed to give liberty to the bondmen, as they had been commanded to do. S.i there came upon them trouble and destruction, even as trouble and destruction rime upon our land thirty years ago, following sufficient waiting time wherein the L rd of hosts seemed proving us if -n-would carry out the very principles avowed by the nation as being its foundation. For the immortal Declaration set forth that all men had an equal right to life and liberty, and the men who framed it appealed to God to witness the justice of their cause. But they failed to comprehend the full scope of their own words. They did not think that it referred to slaves, for then twelve out of thirteen colonies were slave holding. But in time it was forced upon the nation; and it stood before the world as having framed something that meant, before heaven, not white men alone, but the black man as well as the white. America must stand by her principles, not only by the outward appearance and by what they meant in framing but also by the true spirit of that which they appealed to God to help them to defend and maintain. And your speaker believes that the Almighty Ruler prepared the land that we call America, as the special land of lands, as the special portion of the earth, kept until the last, that here He...
